

The Mystery of Riddler's Treasure

There once lived a reclusive old hermit who hoarded up all of his worldly belongings. He lived this way for many years until one day he decided it was time to share his good fortune. However, he was only willing to share his riches with those who he deemed his intellectual equal. He hid his treasure and the only clues he left were an old picture and some riddles. The MBWS needs to find this treasure!!

There are two major treasure stashes hidden on his property, so the MBWS team will need to split up into teams and find them quickly.

These Meddling Kids will never find my Treasure!!

Team A

My Treasure is special , is special indeed, to find all my treasures its my poems you'll need.....

The first leg of your trip is so fun, and so special to me,
so you must start your search at coordinates 6,3

This trip has begun and will be a great folly, so stop standing around and locate my trolley

A quick ride on the trolley will be fun you see, don't forget to let go or you'll be part of my trees

Team A part 2

As you stand in the dust or the grass if you will, you must turn yourself round and look back up the hill

The next clue you will find if you still be alive, I've hid the next poem in quadrant 5,5

Team A part 3

If you have found this here clue, some smart peeps you must be, the next clue is hidden and its not by a tree!

Water I say! , it is water that's mine, your next clue is hidden at coordinates that (when multiplied) equal 9

Team A part 4

You clearly are sly and have both feet on the ground, but the next clue you hunt wont be easily found

If you stand in the spot where you found this here clue, you must look in the “pit” now to find your next clue

Team A part 5

If you're now by the pit , then by my treasure your close!, but I've still got some tricks so you should not yet boast..

As you stand where you stand , your in quadrant 6,2 through the gravel you'll go and you'll move south by 2

When you arrive, your hair wont be on fire, the last clue is taped on something that rhyme's with wire!

Team A part 6

This is your last clue, your last clue indeed, and to go find the treasure your map you wont need

The treasure you'll find it is not on the ground, up the ladder you'll go and then look around

When you get to the top and the Treasure's not seen you must look for the Treasure in something that's green

Team B

My treasure is special , is special indeed, to find all my treasures its my poems you'll need.....

The first leg of your trip is so fun, and so special to me, so you must start your search at coordinates 9,3

If you've read your map right, then some rocks you can fling, you can also have fun, perhaps in a swing!

You are smart my friends, but no smarter than me, to get to the clue you will need a good tree!

Team B part 2

The next leg of your trip, what fun it will be, so proceed with your search at coordinates 6,3

This trip has begun and will be a great folly, so stop standing around and locate my trolley

A quick ride on the trolley will be fun you see, don't forget to let go or you'll be part of my trees

Team B part 3

If you have found this here clue, some smart peeps you must be, the next clue is hidden and its not by a tree!

Water I say! , it is water I've seen, your next clue is hidden at coordinates that (when multiplied) equal 18

Team B part 4

It is purple I like, and its plums that I see, to find your next clue you must find the right tree!

If you are stuck where you stand and cannot find the tree, then from where you stand now it is West that tree be!

Team B part 5

You've found most me clues, and that is no jive, but some luck you will need on this clue number 5.

I thought of a hammer, then I thought of a wrench, but then I hid my next clue under the "animal bench"

Team B part 6

This is your last clue, your last clue indeed, and to go find the treasure your map you'll still need

The treasure you'll find it is not on the ground, it is down in the section where the color is brown

When you get to section and the Treasure's not seen you must look for the treasure in something that's green
